Manuscripts will be sent to at least two referees for review. One of the referees may be named by the author.

Legends have to be placed at the end of the manuscript text and must be in German and English (free translation service will be provided on request). Tables have to be placed in a separate file, with legends in German and English, too. The correct location for illustrations and tables may be indicated in the text. Illustrations will not be returned to the author, except reimbursement is submitted.

Coloured figures may be printed at the expense of the author at a rather low price. Contact the editors for further information.

20 reprints of every publication are provided free of charge. Additional reprints may be ordered at cost-price. Reprint order forms are enclosed with the proofs. A PDF of the article in printable and reduced filesize may be ordered for a small fee.

Longer manuscripts may be published as supplement volume of the BULLETIN OF FISH BIOLOGY. Anybody interested should contact the publisher Verlag Natur & Wissenschaft directly @ info@verlagnw.de.
